SEWING MACHINES
ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION
—AND—
Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE
SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction and easily kept in order, should make a strong LOCK-STITCH, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk, directly from the spool and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle; curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather; and always ready to work

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise

It should have a wheel feed, no others are in constant contact with the work

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress

It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel

UNION STATE TICKET.

For Representative to Congress,
JOHN R. McBRIDE,
Of Yamhill County.

For Governor,
ADDISON C. GIBBS,
Of Multnomah County.

For Secretary of State,
SAMUEL E. MAY,
Of Jackson County.

For State Printer,
HARVEY GORDON,
Of Marion County.

For State Treasurer,
EDWIN N. COOK,
Of Marion County.

For Judge of 4th Judicial District,
E. D. SHATTUCK,
Of Multnomah County.

For Prosecuting Attorneys,
1st District—JAMES F. GAZLEY, of Douglas County.
2d District—A. J THAYER, of Benton County.
3d District—J. G. WILSON, of Marion County.
4th District—W. C. JOHNSON, of Clackamas County.

The Union State Convention.

The Convention held at Eugene City on the 9th of this month, was one of the most substantial gatherings that has ever met together in Oregon. The bone and sinew of the State was then assembled. In their whole being was the fixed determination to stand by the Union; to live and die by the flag of our country. They evinced by their mutual concession and action, that they met, not to sustain any former party or side issues, but to sustain and uphold our country in its endeavors to crush rebellion, to stand by the constitution, to uphold the institutions established and cemented by the blood of our forefathers. Will the people sustain the action there taken and the ticket there nominated?

Upon the answer to this question, depends the future success of Oregon. Shall we sustain the government under which we have lived so long and enjoyed so many blessings a government which has, and now is, expending millions of money for our protection and prosperity? If, on the contrary any people, party or portion of our community, refuse to join with the "Union Party" of this State to sustain the Administration in its loyal endeavors to perpetuate this Union—such party or portion of the community might better at once join the rebel army. Their subtle endeavors to overthrow and neutralize the vigor of our constitutionally elected rulers our constitutional government —well entitles them to the name of traitors to our common interest—traitors to the solemn compact formed by our forefathers—and rebels to the true welfare of Oregon. If this was not in truth their character they would join with the true Union people of this State, to uphold and strengthen our common government and decide at once that Oregon is a true and loyal State.

The Breckinridge Democracy.

The call for a Secession Convention in this State was signed by the committee in behalf of the "Breckinridge Democracy." We suppose that Breckinridge democracy would be glad to hear something from their illustrious leader.

Well, here they have it: Breckinridge is a candidate for a seat in the Confederate Congress. He wants to be elected to that Congress from Kentucky — in which State he dare not now set the sole of his foot. In announcing his wishes, he thus defines his position:

> "I am utterly opposed to a reconstruction of the old Government, or any measure which in the remotest degree tends in that direction. For one, I shall never consent that peace shall be made until the very last of all the enemies of our liberty shall be driven, not only from our hallowed soil, but from every foot of territory which, by its geographical position, naturally belongs to the South."

This is J. C. Breckinridge's position. We hope he will retain it unless Government can get hold of the perjured miscreant.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY VOLUNTEER CAVALRY.—This company now is fully organized by the appointment of its officers; G. B. Curry, Captain; J. T. Apperson, 1st Lieutenant; Wm. Capps, 2d Lieutenant. The company numbers about seventy, rank and file. All but seven or eight are mounted. It still remains at Camp Barlow.

CORRECTION.—In giving the votes at the Union Convention held at Eugene, by mistake we called it the "Republican convention." An obvious error, which will not be repeated.

Presumptive Fraud—Interesting Decision.

At the late term of the Linn County Circuit Court, Judge Boise presiding, a case arose the decision of which is of general interest to the mercantile community.

Some time in February last the Portland and San Francisco creditors of Lavin & Wolfsen, of Albany, levied attachments to the amount of some $18,000 upon their entire stock of goods. J. Quinn Thornton brought replevin against the Sheriff for the goods, claiming that he was entitled to the possession of them by virtue of a deed of trust executed to him by Lavin & Wolfsen to secure their note of about $7,000 held by one William Cospar. The deed was executed in December last, and purported to convey the entire stock, amounting in value to some $14,000, to Thornton in trust for Cospar.

The instrument provided that L. & W. should remain possession of the store and goods, and sell the latter in the usual and ordinary course of business; that they should pay over the cash receipts weekly to Thornton to be applied upon the note; that if at the expiration of ninety days any portion of the note should remain unpaid, Thornton should take possession of the goods remaining and sell them at auction, when ordered so to do by Cospar; that if before the expiration of the ninety days any of the creditors of L. & W. should issue execution against or should attach their goods, or if for any other reason Thornton should deem it necessary, it should be lawful for him to take possession. The instrument was duly filed in the office of Recorder of Linn County within a day or two after its execution.

The case came up on demurrer to the complaint, the argument of which occupied a day and a-half; J. G. Wilson and Thornton for the plaintiff and Judge Williams and E. W. M'Graw of this city, for the defendant. The plaintiff argued that the instrument was in the nature of a chattel mortgage, and that the filing of it rendered it noticed to all the world and threw the burden of proof upon those claiming against it to show fraud; or that if the instrument should be construed as an assignment that, under our Statute it was only prima facie fraudulent, and that under Sec. 20 p. 530 of the Statutes the question of fraud was for the jury and not for the Court to decide.

The Court held that the instrument was neither a mortgage or in the nature of a mortgage, and that the filing of it amounted to nothing, either one way or the other; that it was nothing more or less than an assignment for the benefit of creditors; that the provision empowering the assignors to sell the goods as their own avoided the instrument as against creditors of L. & W.; that under that provision a bona fide purchasor could have obtained a good title to the goods, and that creditors stand for the same footing as purchasers; and further, that the provision authorizing the trustee to retain possession of goods nearly double in value the amount of the debt, until he should be directed by Cospar to them, could enable him to keep the whole stock of goods beyond the reach of creditors, for years, if Cospar should not see fit to order them sold; that the effect of that provision was to hinder and delay the creditors of L. & W. in the collection of their debts; that parties are supposed to have intended the natural result of their acts, and therefore that that provision showed a fraudulent intent and of itself avoided the instrument: and further that where fraud appears upon the face of an instrument, it is for the Court and not for the jury to construe it.

The demurrer was accordingly sustained and judgment given for the defendant. This is the first case of the kind that has arisen in Oregon and the decision is well calculated to inspire creditors with confidence in our courts.

TORIES OF THE REVOLUTION.—During the struggle that gave birth to the Republic, the country was grievously infested by active and bitter tories. In certain portions of the land they especially abounded and in some were actually predominant in numbers. They frustrated the efforts of patriots, gave invaluable information to the enemy, and materially aided in protracting the conflict. Many of them were wealthy, educated, of high standing, had even gained a reputation for integrity, and thus wielded an influence mischievous in the extreme. The journals of that time and the annals of it that have since been published, tell us how those citizens were disposed of. They were made to pay heavily for carrying on the war, and were removed to some region where their power for evil ceased. This course was adopted by the advice and with the hearty concurrence of Washington.

FROM SALMON RIVER.—The Argus has a letter from Salmon river of the 7th March. The weather was then very severe, and the snow from seven to ten feet deep; and in some localities twice that depth. The mercury had been frozen in the thermometer.—Still miners were coming into the mines, comparatively without funds, and many appeared badly disappointed. Provisions were scarce. The writer says nothing about the mines.

The citizens of Albany on the receipt of the news from the Eugene convention held a ratification meeting, and speeches were made by Messrs. Williams and Boise. Much enthusiasm prevailed, and a cordial support was pledged to the entire ticket.—Times.

So far as we hear the Union State ticket is received with great satisfaction by all Union men.

PRISON LIFE IN RICHMOND.—During his imprisonment in Richmond the Hon. Alfred Ely kept a daily journal of his irksome and sad experiences, and took many notes of what he saw and heard, and these papers have been placed in the hands of Mr. Chas. Lanman to be prepared for the press. The volume will be published in a short time by the Messrs. Appleton, of New York, and from its romantic character will of course be extensively circulated. We learn that in the appendix will be found a complete list of all the Union prisoners taken since the commencement of the war, with a record of their fate or present locality.

OREGON CITY, April 12, 1862.

Editor Oregonian:

The secession County Convention was held here to-day. Geo. L. Curry, J. A. Barnett, J. R. Ralston, Jas. Guthrie, Jr., and F. Holland were sent to the rebel State gathering at Corvallis. The County ticket was set up to be knocked into "pi" the first Monday in June. Old Billy Holmes, who in imitation of "Band Box Benny" drank to the success of Jeff. Davis and Beauregard after the battle of Bull Run, presided, and made some half a dozen Union (?) speeches. Resolutions were adopted denouncing "Secession and Abolition" as "twin relicts" of something, I don't remember what—something 'awful,' of course, and lauding the Union and Constitution to the skies. The late Federal victories seem to have produced a wonderful effect upon these miserable, contemptible hypocrites.—Look at them in every county. They are now howling for the Union!! But look at them again. Are they not the very same men who objected to our raising liberty poles and Union flags last spring and summer? They are.

And dear, pious old mother Wait, who used to have some reputation for honesty, but who is now fast securing that of a political granny, sufficiently crazy for office to insanely rush into the arms of known and avowed sympathizers with rebellion, and implored them for God's sake to save the Union by sending him to Congress where he can secure the adoption of the Crittenden Compromise, made two speeches—rattle bent and repeat. There were several bullet headed rebels in the Convention who did not cheer even his milk and water Unionism. The Union men up here talk of sending grandmother Wait on to Uncle Abe, and get him sent down South as a commissioner with a few pockets full of the Crittenden propositions—well knowing that he would be arrested as a d—d Yankee spy with spectacles as a blind, and hung quicker than he could say compromise once.

The Eugene ticket gives general satisfaction in this county. We shall be heard from on the day of election. The Union dodge will not save the secesh ticket. The men are known, and they may pass as many lying resolutions as they choose, but cannot succeed in gulling any true Union man. N.

CITY.

THE OREGONIAN has a larger CIRCULATION LIST than any other paper published in this City.

THE OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin [illegible] store, opposite the Post Office.

[illegible] TO CITIZENSHIP.—Geo McShane, [illegible] detained four months and eight [illegible] to make up the time he lost by [illegible] from the penitentiary, has been restored to citizenship by Gov Whiteaker, who [illegible] one day of his term. McShane was [illegible] yesterday.

[illegible] CASCADES.—We are told by a [illegible] down from the Cascades that the [illegible] at that point was over a foot deep, having [illegible] there over half a day.

[illegible].—The miners' camping ground is [illegible] by going out on the suburbs of [illegible]. We took a walk out yesterday and [illegible] a large number of tents set up, resembling the encampment of a small army. The [illegible] cook and board themselves until they [illegible] to start for the upper country. A [illegible] are compelled to this course from [illegible] that every hotel in town is already [illegible]. Our streets have the appearance [illegible] as crowded now as three weeks [illegible], though some two hundred leave daily [illegible] Dalles.

[illegible].—It is reported that this fearful [illegible] making bad havoc amongst the [illegible] Salmon river—nothing of a preventive [illegible] having yet arrived at the mines.

[illegible] COUNCIL.—To morrow the new [illegible] Council are to meet and organize for [illegible] year.

[illegible] JAIL.—We learn that an individual [illegible] county, having been arrested and [illegible] confinement in the county jail, attempted to fire the building. It was discov[illegible]

[illegible].—Last night the St. Clair left [illegible] opposite the Tremont house, for the [illegible]. She took up a large number of [illegible]

[illegible] COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—Nothing [illegible] transacted by this body yesterday.

[illegible]—Last evening our city was visited [illegible] hail storm. It lasted about half [illegible]

[illegible].—In the criticism on the performance of Richard III. on last Saturday [illegible] was done undesignedly to Mr. [illegible]. Mr. Forbes is an experienced actor, [illegible] at all times his duties, and is perfect in his parts. We make this correction, rather this statement, in sheer justice [illegible].

[illegible] Saturday evening several persons [illegible] standing in a little knot near the C[illegible] [illegible]. One of them said [illegible] in hopes they would break up in a [illegible]

[illegible] reply was—"On the contrary they conduct business with great dignity, [illegible] and harmony. Every delegate [illegible] know what he went for and was [illegible] by side issues."

[illegible] to be done? There is not much [illegible]. It is a risky business to put [illegible] against the government."

[illegible] talk big and blow."

[illegible].—The Times contains a letter [illegible] Leland, dated the 9th. He had [illegible] Walla Walla. He found the town [illegible] and horses. Passed over good [illegible] Walla Walla. Many persons were [illegible] Powder River. News had been received [illegible] Salmon River to the first of April, [illegible] had been six working days, in which [illegible] of dust had been obtained. Snow [illegible] six feet deep. There was much [illegible] in the mines. Mr Leland expected [illegible] Lewiston on Friday. He does not [illegible] of salt grub since he left the steamer [illegible] is encouraging.

[illegible] IN RICHMOND.—From Richmond [illegible] learn that a serious disturbance [illegible] in Richmond on Tuesday night [illegible] which for a time threatened disastrous [illegible] to life and property. It is said [illegible] first commenced in a drunken brawl [illegible] a crowd collected, and soon grew [illegible] formidable proportions. Three or four persons are said to have been killed, of whom [illegible] of the police. Houses, stores, &c., [illegible] broken open and ransacked and it [illegible] impossible to check the violent proceedings until late the following morning, [illegible] many engaged in the mob retired of [illegible] own accord. The Dispatch, speaking of this affair, calls it a disgrace to the city, [illegible] in the extreme. It calls for [illegible] city to be instantly placed under martial [illegible]. The citizens (women especially) were [illegible] alarmed.

[illegible] Slidell in visiting France, passed through [illegible]. The Messenger of that City said of [illegible]:

"Mr. Commissioner Slidell—that very ex[illegible] gentleman for England—arrived here by the Princess Maude on Thursday last. The wretched weather prevented many of the [illegible] attendants being on the quay when [illegible] arrived, and those few that were [illegible] did not know that at least £1,000,000 [illegible] was passing them in wet clothes and [illegible]. Mr. Slidell went direct to the [illegible] and proceeded by the first train to [illegible]

Operations at Island No. 10—From New [illegible]—[illegible] at Union City [illegible] Southern [illegible] Rebel Mail Captured—Rebels [illegible]—Parson Brownlow [illegible]—From [illegible]

The telegraph is again working. We copy the following dispatches from the Sacramento Union of the 5th inst.

CAIRO, April 1.—Intelligence from Island No. 10 states that no injury whatever occurred to the [illegible] gunboats by the tornado. [illegible] considerably damaged, returned to Cairo for repairs. The rebel transports were more exposed than ours and it is thought have suffered severely during the storm which prevailed on the night of the 1st. Col Roberts, with fifty picked men of the Forty [illegible] Illinois, went on an expedition to the upper rebel battery, and on arriving were immediately fired at by the sentinels who fled. Our men then landed and spiked all the guns of the battery. Among the number were 64 pounders and 32 pounders. The expedition returned safely, no man having received a scratch.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Major [illegible] from Mexico [illegible] rebels hold every [illegible] except Forts Craig and Union, the latter of which it is thought, is the most important in the West, containing millions of dollars worth of Government stores. It is now safe beyond peradventure and garrisoned by fifteen hundred soldiers. It has [illegible] the fortifications, and provisions almost unlimited for a siege.

CAIRO, April 1st.—10 P.M.—Officers of the Conestoga, who left Island No. 10 at noon to-day, say that a rebel transport attempted to remove cannon last night from the upper fort and was shelled by some of our mortars and compelled to [illegible] down the river without accomplishing her object.

The Polar Star came up from Hickman to-day with four hundred hogsheads of sugar and six hundred and fifty barrels of molasses belonging to private parties, and will be taken to St. Louis.

Further account of the affair at Union City, Tenn. (an important railroad junction) represent the rebels [illegible] very precipitate. They were breakfasting [illegible] when our forces attacked and opened upon them with artillery. They left their breakfast was left on the table.

BALTIMORE, April 2.—The following is from a special correspondent at Fortress Monroe, to the Baltimore [illegible]:

The number of rebels in Fort Pulaski was reported [illegible] at five hundred. Two German companies had revolted and were in irons. The rebels have called their troops from the coast and abandoned their earthworks, previous to removing their cannon to Savannah. The city of Savannah, however is understood to be very strongly fortified and all the approaches to it. The force there is variously estimated from twenty to fifty [?] thousand.

Great despondency existed among the troops and people at Charleston. The fall of Newbern created the greatest consternation. The three [illegible] called the North Carolina troops charging them with cowardice. There being two North Carolina regiments there at the time a revolt was the consequence. These regiments refused to serve any longer and were allowed to return home.

All [illegible] O. Jennings Wise [illegible] father [illegible] Norfolk as a coward.

WASHINGTON, April [illegible].—Intelligence has been received from Richmond via Baltimore, that the rebels are sending their tobacco to the [illegible] Danville and Farmersville and beyond Petersburg. It is said private citizens have control over cotton of [illegible] military having assumed charge there.

CHICAGO, April 1.—A special to the Tribune from Cairo contains the following extracts from Memphis papers:

The Charleston Mercury of March 22d says that President Davis in secret session advised the Confederate Congress that [illegible] Yankee Government upon parole [illegible] and allowed [illegible] take part in the struggle of [illegible] reason for this infamous recklessness [illegible] exhibited by Mr. Sinclair in the exchange of prisoners.

Attempts are being made to rouse [illegible] Editors and compositors [illegible] for local duty.

The Memphis Appeal says the recent victory of the Confederate army [?] is [illegible] confidence. It contains no doubt of the ultimate success of their cause.

[illegible] people [illegible] a large force of Federals at New Madrid, when [illegible] compelled to evacuate the place. [The rebels say this.]

In Mississippi the planters are putting their cotton in order, ready for burning.

Tilley has gone to Richmond.

A dispatch, dated New Orleans, March 20th, says the Federals at anchor [illegible] had bombarded [illegible] with all on board. [The [illegible] of New York.]

A rebel mail was captured recently at Union City, Tenn. It contained letters from the [illegible] troops at Island No. 10, which represent the troops [illegible] and disappointed.

Forty or fifty soldiers have come into [illegible] Kentucky, giving up their arms and [illegible] to return to their allegiance and join the Federal army. They report a large number [illegible] troops [illegible].

A telegram from Cincinnati says that Parson Brownlow has [illegible] liberal offer from Childs [illegible] publisher, and at the Parson's request a copy of his [illegible] will be given to the [illegible] every paper in the country, so that they [illegible] loyal in Secessia.

Indications point to Corinth, Miss. for the next great battle. [illegible] Westminster [illegible]. The fight will [illegible] engaged [illegible] the battle of Waterloo. Gen. [illegible] is waiting for something, which is tolerably certain [illegible] Corinth the rebels have concentrated their best military talent [illegible] that if they can [illegible] conveniently [illegible] many Confederates will die in it.

ARKANSAS, April 4th.—P.M.—[illegible] weather is clear and pleasant. The Mississippi river is open [illegible] St. Louis. Steamboats are running regularly.

SLAVERY VANISHING.—The St. Louis Democrat says, [illegible] slavery is vanishing from Missouri more rapidly even than its enemies predicted. Secession has made the State too hot for the [illegible], and secessionists are daily leaving the State for the South with their slaves, to escape the very dangers they themselves madly invited and provoked."

[illegible].—Peter Cartwright, the [illegible] lately said [illegible] to some Illinois [illegible]. We will fight the rebels [illegible] no other reason than breaking up the Democratic party at the Charleston and Baltimore convention." Peter is evidently posted."

[illegible] to the British Parliament [illegible] "That question has been [illegible] by the restoration of the [illegible] to British protection and by the [illegible] by the United States Government [illegible] committed by their naval [illegible] between her Majesty and the President of the United States are therefore unimpaired."

How to go to the Mines. Miners who [illegible] Salmon River [illegible] Creek, and [illegible] mining regions, should not start out unprepared [illegible] the upper country [illegible] Cascades [illegible] having been cut off by the long stoppage of navigation. Therefore we would enjoin all who wish to go, [illegible] to furnish a return with their pockets full of [illegible] call at HARKER BROTHERS, opposite the [illegible] Wharf and supply themselves with Flour, Bacon, Beans, Groceries, Blankets, Clothing, Rubber and Nailed Boots, and all other articles necessary for mining purposes, before they embark for the Land of Promise.

Agency Notice.—Mr. L. P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco, to receive advertisements [illegible] for the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN. Office No. [illegible] Washington street, nearly [illegible] Maguire's Opera House.

A National Song

BY A NORTHERN LADY AT CHARLESTON

Who would sever Freedom's shrine?
Who would draw the invidious line?
Tho' by birth one spot is mine,
Dear is all the rest;
Dear to me the South's fair land,
Dear the central mountain band,
Dear New England's rocky strand,
Dear the prairied West.

By our altars pure and free,
By our law's deep-rooted tree,
By the past's dread memory—
By our Washington;
By our common kindred tongue,
By our hopes—bright, buoyant, young,
By the tie of country strong,
We will still be one.

Fathers! have ye bled in vain?
Angels! must ye drop again?
Maker! shall we rashly stain
Blessings sent by thee?
No! receive our solemn vow,
While before thy throne we bow,
Ever to maintain, as now,
Union! Liberty!

A CONSIDERATE LETTER TO THE REBELS.—The Frankfort (Ky.) Commonwealth, of the 19th contains the following touching letter to the enemy:

My Dear Rebs.:—I now take my pen in hand for the purpose of holding communion with you through the silent medium of pen and paper. I have just learned that the lines are now open as far as Fort Donnelson, in Tennessee, and I avail myself with alacrity of the opportunity now presented of resuming our correspondence. Your many friends in this section would like to be informed on various topics—for instance,

How are you, any how?

How does "dying in the last ditch" agree with your general health?

How is the "constitution" down your way?

How is "King Cotton?"

When will Buckner take his Christmas dinner in Louisville?

Is Floyd still "rifling" cannon and other small arms?

A brave officer who had been wounded with a musket ball in or near the knee, was streched upon the dissecting table of a surgeon, who, with his assistant, began to probe and cut in that region of his anatomy. After awhile the "subject" said:—

"Don't cut me in that style, Doctor! What are you torturing me in that cruel way for?"

"We are looking for the ball," replied the senior operator.

"Then why didn't you say so before?" asked the indignant patient. "I've got the ball in my pocket," said he, putting his hand in his waistcoat, and taking it out. "I took it out myself," he added. "Didn't I mention it to you? I meant to."

How is Pillow's "last ditch," and when will he gratify his numerous friends by "dying" in the same?

How is the "Southern Heart?"

Are you still able to whip five to one?

Did the recognition of the S. Confed. by England and France benefit you much?

Where is the "Provisional Government of Kentucky," and what is it kept in?

Where is the Louisville-Nashville Bowling Green Courier is now published? Say!

And lastly, what do you think of yourselves, any how? Yours, in a horn,

A LINCOLN MAN.

United States, Feb. 18, 1862.

A PRETTY GOOD STORY.—A tolerably good story is told us of a couple of raftsmen, based upon an occurrence during the late big flood and storm, in which so many rafts were swamped and so many steamboats lost their sky rigging. A raft was caught in a dangerous place just as the squall came. In an instant the raft was pitching and writhing as if suddenly dropped into Charybdis, while the waves broke over it with tremendous uproar; and, expecting instant destruction, the raftsman dropped on his knees and commenced praying with a vim equal to the emergency. Happening to open his eyes an instant, he observed his companion not engaged in prayer, but pushing a pole into the water at the side of the raft. "What that's your doin', Mike?" said he; "get down on your knees, now, for there isn't a minit between us and purgatory!" "Be aisy, Pat," said the other as he continued to punch the water with his pole; "be aisy, now, what's the use of praying when a feller can tech bottom with a pole?" Mike is a pretty good specimen of a large class of Christians who prefer to omit prayer as long as they can "tech bottom."

"You may depend upon me, wife, I give you my word." "I had rather you would sometimes keep it, sir."

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
Private Medical & Surgical Institute,
SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M.D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the [illegible] of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of [illegible] and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. As a permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid Consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system rapidly, wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures. Medicines with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All communications strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the ravages of disease, who having recovered their former health and happiness by gratitude, under their own ... authenticated by a Notary Public ... [illegible]

Certificate.—[illegible]

[illegible] ... and evil foreboding, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of resolution, the intolerable exciting and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having seen the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate against the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to give this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and to recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience, that a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir: I have used all of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well except that I have not regained my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I went to your institute with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to do it perfectly, but thought you might be able to do a little to ease the pain in my back and head, and also so as that I would not get excited and tremble so while ... Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery, and ... to me all the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers from my throat, and the ... the ... which you said were the cause of my sickness.
